

CHAD HIGGINS

Category: MUSICIAN/PRODUCER/ARTIST (GROUP)

- Music Styles: Traditional Gospel, Contemporary Gospel, Praise & Worship
- Music Group: Chad Higgins and In Spirit & In Truth
- Leadership Experience: 30 years in Music Ministry
- Affiliations: National Convention of Gospel Choirs and Choruses (NCGCC) and Gospel Music Workshop of America, Inc (GMWA)
- Goal(s): "To expand my knowledge and become more involved on the songwriting, producing, and music transcription side of the Music Industry and to expose others to my music via workshops, recording projects and my own group Chad Higgins and In Spirit & In Truth."

Chad Higgins was born into a musically gifted family and started music lessons at age 4. At the age of 18, he began to advance his knowledge of piano and organ via self-study. Since then he has used his knowledge and skills in Music Ministry and the Music Industry and has served in some form of Leadership capacity in the collegiate community, religious community and as founder of his own gospel group "Chad Higgins and In Spirit & In Truth." Chad has served as Musical Director for the University of Louisville Black Diamond Choir, Musical Director for two local plays and as Minister of Music for several churches. He is also a workshop clinician and has presented several songs at the NCGCC and the GMWA. He has also had songs recorded on several projects and has production credits on three music projects.

Chad completed his first recording project "He Is Who He Is" with In Spirit & In Truth in 2007 and the project has blessed people all over the country and has been a tool to help touch the lives of many. The group has shared the stage with several gospel artists such as Kurt Carr, Tramaine Hawkins, Keith "Wonderboy" Johnson, Joe Leavell and the St. Stephen Temple Choir, Donnie McClurkin, Vickie Winans, Stephen Hurd, and VaShawn Mitchell.

Chad Higgins and In Spirit & In Truth recently recorded a sophomore project, entitled "Predestined," that will be released early in 2011.